

WSU Puyallup Campus Map

The map below shows the locations of our various meeting rooms or buildings. Following the map are short descriptions of each room and the building where it is located. To reserve rooms numbered 1-6, please call 253-445-4501. Please note that only the main entrance is opened after 6:00 PM (until about 10:00 PM), then it is also closed. All entrances are closed on the weekends. When you reserve the D. F. Allmendinger Center (or other room), you will receive a key for entrance to our grounds.

Room Descriptions:

- 1. Chicona Conference Room: Located in the Administration Building. Seats about 16 people around a large table, as well as 16 chairs against the walls. Used for internal and external meetings. Includes video conferencing capabilities, an overhead LCD projector, smart board and whiteboard.
- 2. Puyallup Conference Room: Located at the west end of building 1016. Seats 12-25 people, with tables in a classroom layout, with chairs also along the wall. Includes video conferencing capabilities (through WECN system and Academic Media Services) and overhead projector. Used for student classes, as well as HR training sessions and other AMS meetings. Also includes wireless and wired access to the Internet. Can be used by outside groups, as well as internal meetings.

3. 4-H Conference Room: Located upstairs in building 1016, on the east end of the second floor. This is located in an office, so it is primarily used for internal meetings or Academic Media Classes in the evenings, after hours. Seats 1-5 people. The room has video conferencing capabilities.
4. Greenhouse Meeting Room: Located in the northwest corner of the Greenhouse Building. Used primarily for internal meetings. Table and chair space, as well as lab counters. Seats up to 15 people.
5. Kalkus Conference Rooms: Located on the first floor of Kalkus Hall in Room 109. Two meeting room options are available. One room can seat up to 8 people at an 8 ft table. One room will seat up to 4 people at a small table. Both rooms have video conferencing capabilities. K109A also has a pull-down projector screen and a white board for meetings. Used primarily for internal meetings or trainings.
6. D. F. Allmendinger Center: Rentable facility that can seat up to 200 people; can be used as 1, 2, or 3 rooms; and equipped with a commercial kitchen. See further information on website under Services, regarding rental options and prices.
7. WOSSA: Located at the south end of the WSU Puyallup campus. Meeting room available for Washington On-Site Sewer Association classes, and occasional other meetings. Seats 20-25 people.
8. WSDA: Offices leased by Washington State Department of Agriculture (noxious weeds division).
9. Master Gardener Building: Location of Master Gardener nursery area and meeting room, and Spring Sale (usually end of April).
