Summertime workers make an impact

The next time you take a walk on a beautiful July or August morning, take a closer look at some of the people working on campus this summer. You'll see workers harvesting, working on landscaping or attending to research areas. Although this list is not inclusive, it will help you say "Hello" to some of the new faces around campus.

Greg Henry works with Jon Johnson in the Poplar Program and is a History/Education major at WSU. Mike Hansen, Carl Jones and Jaime Larson are working with Gary Chastagner. Mike is a student at Pierce College, studying Information Technology; Carl is a student at Seattle Pacific University studying Secondary Education; and Jaime is a WSU graduate. Don Sherry (also pictured above) is a new employee with Gary working in Plant Pathology.

Tanner Aden, Brad Kilgus, Pete Linden, and Curt Bod are part of Dory Clausnitzer's FMO staff. Tanner is a student at Boise State University; Brad is a student at WSU studying Biology; Pete is a 22-year veteran from the Boeing Company; and Curt Bod is our new carpenter.

Robin Anne Ogle, Lacey Albice, Cierra Maib, Sam Field, Aubry Whitfield, Amber Carver, and Jim Erwin-Svoboda have been working in the berry fields. Lacey attends Pierce College; Cierra will be at UW this fall; Sam will be starting at CWU; Aubry is a psychology major at WSU; and Jim will be starting at Gonzaga University.
